

Edward J. Brown, CSRM

Edward Brown has 43 years' experience in the EMS field with over 32 years in Safety & Risk Management. Mr. Brown began his career in 1981 with Adams Ambulance in Los Angeles County. Mr. Brown took on the role of Safety and Risk Manager and with AMR and later as the Mid-West Director of Safety and Risk Management.

Mr. Brown attended UC Riverside, today he is a Certified Specialist in Risk Management, providing risk survey and loss prevention services for insurers, underwriters, brokers and professional associations. Specializing in the areas of Low Forces Defensive Drivers Training, Infection Control, Quality Assurance, OSHA Standards for general industry, Post Offer Functional Assessment, Clinical Standards, Accident Investigation and Root Cause Analysis. Mr. Brown has experience with virtually all types of Healthcare and Transportation risks.

Mr. Brown has been a licensed insurance broker for Property & Casualty insurance since 2004 and Accident and Health since 2019. With experience in Workers Compensation, General Liability, Professional Liability and Commercial auto, amongst other lines. Mr. Brown has facilitated numerous training seminars focusing on risk management and loss control practices for businesses as well as professional associations.

Based in Canyon Lake, CA. Mr. Brown has worked extensively on behalf of several insured's' as well as Specialty Insurance Programs, entrusted to evaluate and develop Engineering, Administrative and PPE practices for Emergency and Non-Emergency Medical Transportation, as well as other healthcare and transportation industries.

A skilled risk analyst, Mr. Brown specializes in obtaining critical information and providing effective risk management solutions to further clients' business goals.

Ed Brown, CSRM

Senior Associate

Safety and Risk Management Specialist

Canyon Lake, CA

ed@thekarrasgroup.com – email

(951) 566-7281 - cell